Prechtl presents:
ADIHEX 2014 – International Hunting and Equestrian Exhibition Abu Dhabi, Stand 6D35, 10.–13.09.2014

Jagd auf großes Bergwild erfordert weite Schüsse mit leistungsstarken Kalibern und mit maximaler Präzision.

Hunting wary big game
calls for long-range cartridges of high calibres and maximum precision.

Gottfried Prechtl and his master gunsmiths' shop enjoy the highest reputation among demanding sport shooters and hunters. No surprise then that gun collectors from around the world turn to the specialist gunsmiths in the Hessian Birkenau for the making and servicing of exclusive weapons. The newest masterpiece from the elite gunshop is the high-powered hunting rifle Prechtl EXPRESS-07 / MANSORY EDITION, manufactured in cooperation with MANSORY. The highest standards of luxury hunting rifle and precision target rifle construction went into the building of this Special Edition. The result is a unique hunting rifle for long-distance shooting. All patents of the legendary Mauser 98 systems that concern safety were taken into account in building the EXPRESS-07 and complemented by a modern closed barrel. These modifications give the system the highest →
